CAMPUSFLOW

Chapter Two: Literature Review

Demonstration project - sample academic content

Review themes

Digital supervision combines document management, formative feedback, access control and milestone reporting.

Design implications

A useful system distinguishes pending work from approved work, preserves previous document versions and makes review outcomes visible to students.

Research note

This PDF is demonstration material. It does not present invented citations, survey responses or empirical findings.